PROJECT MANAGEMENT AND PROFESSIONAL WRITING EXPERIENCEAcker Editing & ConsultingAcademic and Business Editor, 2006–present

- Provide diverse proofreading, editing, tutoring, consulting, and professional writing services to meet clients' needs and help them reach their professional goals. Traditionally published projects include memoirs, academic monographs, journal articles, devotionals, and a checkers strategy handbook.
- Actively participate in several professional editing groups and organizations, including the American Copy Editors Society, Editors' Association of Earth, and Editorial Freelancers Association.
- Developed expertise in many nonfiction genres, including specialties in dissertations, journal articles, monographs, application essays, cover letters, professional correspondence, and technical reports.
- Maintain and expand an extensive global client base, often through word-of-mouth referrals. Repeat clients include graduate students, full-time faculty, research scientists, college and graduate school applicants, authors, and business professionals.

American Checker FederationTreasurer and Social Media Manager, 2010–2013

- Launched and managed the organization's Facebook page, reaching thousands of fans and potential members. Developed posts and graphics to share match and tournament results, update followers on checkers news, raise funds for major events, and encourage discussion of ways to improve checkers organizations.
- Pioneered a match and tournament webcasting system to connect with an increasingly global member base. Personally broadcast and relayed multiple World Championship Matches to fans all over the world, reaching roughly 100x as many viewers as the average tournament attendance. Consulted with tournament referees and organizers to improve future broadcasts.
- Wrote several professional reports for group leaders and members, including the group's first formal financial report in a decade. Spearheaded a new initiative to create and distribute PDF bulletins to members, significantly increasing efficiency while reducing production costs.
- Organized and hosted two annual National Tournaments (2010 and 2013), refereed two World Championship Matches, and served as publicity and technology assistant for several other tournaments and matches. Led a team of volunteers to scan, transcribe, and publish games from major tournaments. Co-published a new edition of Basic Checkers, a classic textbook that was out-of-print.

The King James Bible and Its Cultural Afterlife Conference (Ohio State University, May 2011)Lead Conference Assistant, 2010-2011

- Collaborated with faculty organizers to co-develop conference themes, organize panels, and structure conference events that would appeal to literary scholars, historians, theologians, and local community members.
- Managed publicity and outreach for conference events. Identified likely attendees, developed calls for papers, advertised conference in professional and community settings, and liaised with campus offices and community businesses to secure conference resources.
- Processed, evaluated, and distributed applications for individual conference panels, corresponded with conference attendees to process registrations and answer questions, and prepared and assembled conference packets for each attendee.
- Provided onsite administrative and technical support to conference speakers and panelists, directed attendees to conference events and campus resources, and managed a team of volunteers to facilitate onsite registration, equipment setup, closing reception, and clean-up.
